2014 is the 10th anniversary of the original Pretty Princess and there were frequent requests to bring it back. We have changed a few things especially the small 4x4" hoop size to the new 5 x 7", 255 x 145 oval and larger 200 x 300mm and 260 x 400mm jumbo hoops. The cover page has a new look, so did we change a lot of the designs, Sarah is replaced with Rosella, the text for the entire story with new spacers and a border for each page are all supplied.

We hope you enjoy making the newer version of Pretty Princess.

This is a wonderful way to spoil that special little girl in your family. Being a grandmother, aunt or godmother just gives you one good reason to sew something special for her to cherish for the rest of her life. Although this charming project requires many "bits and pieces" to put these pages together, the end result will be so rewarding. Imagine that little angel face smiling up to you while paging through this 3-dimensional fairy tale. For adding that special detail, dig into your remnants and notions specially kept for "one day" – you'll need all of that now!

This book is for 'little princesses' 4 years and older as it contains small, loose pieces.
